

June Plays a Tune

Sound: u_e and e_e

Set 4 • Longer words

Decodable story

June has a flute. She plays a cute tune. Her mule, Luke, likes the tune. He stamps to the beat. Then June uses a drum. Boom, boom! Luke runs. June plays the flute again, and Luke comes back. These are the rules. The flute is for Luke. The drum is for June. Pete hums along to the tune.

Read it 3 times. Colour a star each time.

Find 6 words with u_e and e_e in the story. Write them here.

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Grown-ups: Point to each word as your child reads. Magic e makes the u say its name (cub, cube) and the e say its name (Pete, these). Read it three times this week; it gets smoother each time.
